Committee, there is no reason apparent why existing Clerks on the Municipal establishment should not be utilised for the purpose in question, which moreover cannot entail much clerical work, nor any thing like what will occupy a clerk on Rs. 15/- a month for one year. Government are not disposed to sanction the proposal. If however the Board absolutely necessary to employ any additional hand for Clerical work there may be entertained when necessary for the season, by the Committee, his wages being charged to "works" connected with the City Extensions.
